Oh the remnants of me.

She sits in an empty room, awaiting my return
It's been a long time, since I went, to fight the years of war

Endless lonely nights, she ponders, distant lights
She sees beyond and wonders, "where can he be in this world without me?"

Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, the remnants of me

She waits in an empty church, with candles burning bright
Saints and angels weep, since her love, has left her for the fight

As the unknown soldier yearns, to come back to life
She waits for me, with a heart that burns, I do love her, but I'll never return, return, return

Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, she guards the remnants of soldiers
Oh, the remnants of me
